

RISE STARTUP SYMPOSIUM I

How Biomedical Research is Improving Human Health

Dr. Lydia Villa-Komaroff
Cytonome, Inc

Dr. Adina Roskies
Dartmouth College
Department of Philosophy

When? July 22, 2014 from 9:00 am-5:30 pm
Where? NMSU Music Recital Hall
Who Should Attend? Anyone interested in the impact of biomedical research on health. Community members are welcome!

Who is Speaking?

Dr. Yarimar Carrasquillo
NIH, National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine

- Dr. Yarimar Carrasquillo (9:15-9:45 am)
Physiology is the Key to Control Pain
- Dr. Peter Winter (10:00-10:30 am)
Faster, Sharper, Deeper: Advances in Biological Fluorescence Imaging
- Showcase of RISE Mentors (11:15 am- 12:00 pm)
Drs. Mary Alice Scott, Omar Holguin and Erik Yukl
- Dr. Adina Roskies (1:30-2:00 pm)
Freedom Despite Mechanism
- Dr. Richard Cuellar (2:15-2:45 pm)
PTEN and Aggressive Prostate Cancer
- Leadership Speaker Dr. Lydia Villa-Komaroff (4:00-5:00 pm)
Leadership in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics) Disciplines

Dr. Richard Cuellar
Cymogen, DX, LLC

Dr. Peter Winter
NIH, National Institute of Biomedical Imaging
and Bioengineering

Register at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/RISESYMPOSIUM2014>

Supported by NMSU RISE to the Postdoctorate Program, NIH NIGMS Grant # R25GM061222

MPIs: Shelley Lusetti, Graciela Unguez, Elba Serrano

Hosted by: Drs. Kathryn Hanley and Elba Serrano

Contact: RISE Office 646-5726 or rise@nmsu.edu

Download a free visitor parking permit at <http://park.nmsu.edu/visitor/> or contact the NMSU Parking Department at 646-1839